THE TEAM OF CHAMPIONS

By Frank A. Korch

The thirty-year-old history of the Chicago Bears reads like a tale from the Arabian Nights. It is the story of Football Champions, of great accomplishments, of achievement which goes far beyond comparison. This book is a tribute to the players of the Bears, who have been the source of records, great records, thus making our job an easy one.

George Halas organized the first Bear team in 1920. The First Bears won their opening game and finished the season with only one defeat, losing by a single point. They have been going strong ever since. The Bears are credited with the highest win percentage in major sports. They have won more championships and more victories than any other aggregation in the annals of professional football. The Bears have scored 9,721 points, which is an all-time record, and in total yardage they are also first, with 91,204 yards, which is roughly 60 miles. In addition, the Bears hold the series edge in victories over every rival team they have engaged since the National Football League was formed.

In the matter of popularity, the Bears are in class by themselves. They are the favorite team of Memphians, Coloradoans and Up State New Yorkers; of Newton, Kansas, and Pocatello, Idaho. More than 12,000,000 fans have seen the Bears in action from New York to California, and more than 50,000,000 persons have listened to the exploits of the Bears over the air lanes. It was Halas and his Bears who made the sports world pro football conscious, first with the Galloping Ghost, Red Grange, and seven years later with the modern T-Formation. They electrified sportdom in 1940 by drubbing Sammy Baugh and the Washington Redskins, 73 to 0, in a playoff for the world championship.

Through the years, many of football's most dynamic stars have played in the Orange, White and Blue colors of the Chicago Bears. The Big Parade of gridiron giants began thirty years ago with Jake Lanum, George Trafton, Hugh Blacklock and the Sternamans. Jimmy Conzelman was an early day Bear, and Halas, who coached the team, also played end. In later years came Ed Healey, greatest of all Bear tackles; Jim McMillen, Chic Harley, Guy Chamberlain, Laurie Walquist, Hunk Anderson, Don Murray, Grange, Bronko Nagurski, Joesting, Brumbaugh, Hewitt, Feathers, Kopcha, Danny Fortmann, Stydahar, George Wilson, Bill Osmanski, Luckman, Turner, McAfee and Kavanaugh. They have carried on in the true tradition of a ball team which is world famous for its Flaming Spirit. Needless to say, every youngster in every hamlet in the land has a burning desire to some day become a member of the Chicago Bears. Johnny Lujack finally realized his boyhood ambition last fall.

Since 1920, nearly 600 players have helped carry the Bears' standard through 456 gridiron battles. On December 4th most of the old Bears will assemble in Chicago for their annual Homecoming to celebrate the thirtieth birthday of one of the greatest teams of all time.

The class of '20 will join with all of the other classes of Halas U in singing this Bear Song as a tribute to a team of Real Champions:

BEAR DOWN, CHICAGO BEARS

Make every play clear the way to victory;

BEAR DOWN, CHICAGO BEARS

Put up a fight with a might so fearlessly.

We'll never forget the way you thrilled the nation

With your T-Formation;

BEAR DOWN, CHICAGO BEARS

And let them know why you're wearing the crown.

You're the pride and joy of Illinois,

CHICAGO BEARS—BEAR DOWN

Bears' Album

George Halas returned from active duty in the Navy to assume command again in 1946

The Bears staged a great comeback in 1946 to win their seventh world championship. Sid Luckman's brilliant touchdown run was the deciding play in the title game with the New York Giants. Figuring prominently in the triumph were George McAfee and Ray McLean. The victory was particularly sweet music to McAfee, who left the Bears at the peak of his career in 1941 to join the Navy. Out with injuries most of the '46 season, McAfee starred in the championship game.

Greatest of all Bear guards was Danny Fortmann, 1935 to 1942

Joe Stydahar will always be remembered as one of the greatest Bears.

Ray Nolt made his history with the Bears from 1935 to 1944

Beattie Feathers gained 1,004 yards in 1934 in a backfield with Nagurski, Ronzani and Brumbaugh

Bronko Nagurski is the Bears' all time hero, the greatest of them all.

Upper left shows the Bears celebrating their 21 to 0 victory over the College All-Stars in August, 1942. Although minus many great players, the Bears were still all-powerful that season.

Bill Hewitt helped lead the Bears to many of their most spectacular victories. He was considered the greatest end ever to play football.

Automatic Jack Manders holds the all-time Bear scoring mark. A place kicker, an outstanding ball carrier and a terrific tackler.

The bottom picture shows Head Coach George Halas with four members of his 1941 team, which most observers regard as the greatest football machine of all time. The players are Manders, Sid Luckman, Ray Nolting and George McAfee.

Red Grange and the Bears played 8 games in 12 days on the 1925 tour.

THE BEARS' GREAT RECORDS

The Bears have established many of the greatest records in sportdom. In 29 seasons, they have won more championships, more games, scored more points and gained more yards than any other team in professional football history. The Bears have the highest win percentage of any team in professional sports.

Official figures credit the Bears with the following:

Bears' Coaching Staff

The Bears' coaching staff is the finest in football. It is responsible for the modern development of the T-Formation, and it is the staff which still sets the pace for all of the "T" coaches throughout the land, collegiate as well as professional. Products of the Bears' Coaching System are in big demand. Former Bears now actively coaching include George Wilson, Joe Stydahar, George Trafton, Bob Snyder, Ray Nolting, Danny Fortmann, Ray McLean, Dr. Bill Osmanski, Beattie Feathers, Ray Richards, Bert Ingwersen, Denny Myers, Tipp Mooney, Bob Margarita, Joe Maniaci and Jack Karwales.

The Bears have a five-man staff this season. George Halas is the Commander-in-Chief. Luke Johnsos is his assistant. Hunk Anderson confines his duties to the line, with Paddy Driscoll and Gene Ronzani in charge of the back-field men.

GEORGE HALAS

President and Head Coach. Born on Chicago's west side on February 2, 1895. Attended Crane Tech, competing in baseball, football and basketball. Entered the University of Illinois as an engineering student in September, 1914; graduated January, 1918. Member of Fighting Illini varsity 1915-16-17. Earned letters in baseball and captained Illinois basketball team in final year. Halas began his career under Bob Zuppke as a halfback, but was switched to end, where he gained All-Western honors in 1917. However, George attracted more attention in college for his exploits on the diamond, and was widely scouted by major league baseball clubs.

Halas entered the Navy as an ensign soon after his graduation. Sent to Great Lakes Naval Training Station, he became a member of the famed Blue Jacket eleven which tied Notre Dame that fall, defeated the Naval Academy, and played in the Rose Bowl on New Year's Day. Great Lakes won the Service championship by defeating Mare Island. Halas was placed on Walter Camp's second All-American honor team. Following his discharge from service, Halas signed to play baseball with the New York Yankees. He went to the spring training camp tagged a "prize rookie" but an injury cost him a berth with the Yanks and Halas concluded his brief baseball career with St. Paul in the American Association. George played pro football in 1919 with Hammond. He joined the A. E. Staley Co. of Decatur, Ill., the following spring, playing baseball under "Iron Man" Joe McGinnity. The famous Decatur Staley's football team was organized by Halas in the fall of 1920. He also was one of the organizers of the National Football League the same year. Halas moved the Staley's to Chicago and Cubs Park in 1921, where they became known as the Chicago Bears.

The Bears were a power in the league from the start, winning the championship the first season, and Halas, who was the team's first coach, also played end. He continued as player-coach until 1930, when Ralph Jones took over the club's field direction. Halas returned to active coaching in 1933, won another world championship with the Bears, and has been at the helm ever since, except for a period from October 25, 1942, through the 1943-44 and '45 seasons, when he served with the Navy in World War Two. During his service, George acted as athletic and recreation director in the Pacific Theater. He was decorated with the Bronze Star Medal by Admiral Chester Nimitz.

Halas rejoined the Bears in 1946 and led the team to its seventh world championship.

Married in 1922, he is the father of two children, George Jr., and Mrs. Virginia McCaskey.

LUKE JOHNSOS

Assistant coach and vice president. Johnsos is a product of Schurz High in Chicago and a graduate of Northwestern University, where he won honors both in football and baseball. Luke received a trial with the Cincinnati Reds but decided to devote his professional career to football. He joined the Bears in 1928 and performed at end for seven seasons, earning all-league recognition in 1933. Johnsos teamed together with Bill Hewitt to form one of the finest end combinations in football.

Luke was appointed assistant coach in 1937, and has been a member of the staff ever since. As a player or coach, he has been a member of six Bear championship aggregations. Johnsos and Hunk Anderson were named co-coaches on October 25, 1942, when George Halas was called to active duty by the Navy. They were at the helm of the Bears for the remainder of the '42 season, and during the 1943-44 and '45 campaigns.

Like the other members of the coaching staff, Johnsos is a keen student of football and an ardent advocate of the T-Formation. He is recognized as an outstanding strategist. Luke is associated in a printing company enterprise at Skokie, Ill. He is the champion father of the club—two boys and three girls. Johnsos makes his home in Evanston, Ill.

Bears' Coaching Staff

HEARTLEY "HUNK" ANDERSON

Line mentor of the Bears since 1940. One of the famous Calumet, Michigan, products. Hunk, like George Gipp, enrolled at Notre Dame to play under Knute Rockne. He was a member of the Fighting Irish in 1918-19-20 and '21 and gained All-Western honors at guard. Anderson joined the Bears in 1922 and ranked with the top pro linemen of his day. After concluding his professional playing career, Hunk returned to Notre Dame, where he acted as Rockne's first assistant and line coach, except for a brief period as head coach at St. Louis University. Under his tutelage, Notre Dame developed such great linemen as Jack Cannon, Ted Twomey, Ed Krause and Bud Boeringer.

Anderson was named Headman of the Fighting Irish following Rockne's tragic death early in 1931. He served three seasons in that capacity. Hunk was appointed head coach at North Carolina State College in 1934. Later he served as line coach at the University of Michigan and Cincinnati U. Before joining the Bears' coaching staff, Hunk was with the Detroit Lions.

Hunk is recognized as one of the foremost line coaches in the game, and an authority on line play. Few men in football have made a more thorough study of the art of blocking and tackling. He is known throughout the National Football League for his defensive innovations. The Andersons reside in Detroit. They have two children.

JOHN L. "PADDY" DRISCOLL

Backfield coach of the Bears since 1941. Paddy was one of the greatest athletes ever developed in the Chicago Area. He was a backfield luminary at Northwestern University, and as a teammate of George Halas, played on the mighty Great Lakes aggregation in 1918, which won the service championship and appeared in the Rose Bowl. Driscoll was signed to play with the first Bear team in 1920, but was awarded to the Cardinals. He was the big star of the latter club for six seasons and in 1926 was acquired by the Bears. Paddy celebrated his reunion with Halas by scoring all 16 points as the Bears defeated the Cards, 16 to 0, that season. Driscoll retired as an active player at the end of the 1928 campaign, recognized as one of the greatest stars in football annals. Some observers rank him as an all-time All-American. Paddy acted as player-coach of the Cardinals in 1921 and '22. He coached St. Mel's High School in Chicago for several years and in 1939 became head coach of Marquette University. Besides being a member of the Bear coaching staff, Driscoll has a seat on the Chicago Board of Trade. The Driscolls live in Chicago and have a son.

GENE RONZANI

Quarterback coach of the Bears. One of the greatest athletes ever to come out of Iron Mountain, Michigan. Entered Marquette University in 1929 and earned nine letters for football, basketball and track. Captained Marquette grid squad in 1932. Earned nickname "Tuffy." Received law degree and joined Bears in '33. Member of three championship aggregations. Teamed with Bronko Nagurski, Beattie Feathers and Carl Brumbaugh to form one of football's greatest backfields. Switched from halfback to quarterback in 1937. Ronzani developed into an able field general. Gene was appointed head coach of Newark "farm team" in 1939 and won league title following season. Returned to Bears as active player in 1943 and directed team while Sid Luckman was on naval duty. Ronzani was named head coach of another Bear "farm" in 1946, this time at Akron, Ohio, where he developed George Gulyanics. Gene became quarterback coach of the Bears in 1947. He is regarded as one of the most promising young coaches in the game.

LUCKMAN ONE OF FOOTBALL'S GREATEST

Records speak for themselves, and the records speak quite convincingly for Sid Luckman, ace quarterback of the Chicago Bears since 1939. George Halas calls Sid the greatest T-Formation quarterback of all time. This opinion is shared by many other leading coaches. Luckman was the quarterback and key man on four world championship Bear teams. Sid was named the Outstanding Player in the National Football League in 1943. He has been ranked alongside Sammy Baugh as a forward passer for the past ten years. Together, they hold virtually every important passing record in professional football. Luckman was named all-league quarterback six times (1941-42-43-44-46-47).
